

I hope that the FCC does not decide to lessen the Indiana telephone privacy law. It has improved the quality and time I am spending with my family while we are home. We use to receive 15 calls a week, now that number is down to around 2. Please keep the law as is. Thank you.